A Clear Case of Justifiable Homicide—The Excitement Over the Failure of Green's Bank.

About Subsidies, and Confidence Fully Restored—Railroad Bill at Canton, Miss.—Jackson, Tenn.

JACKSON, MISS. (Special to the Appeal.)

A clear case of justifiable homicide—The excitement over the failure of Green's Bank.

The excitement caused by the failure of Green's Bank has, to a great degree, subsided. Confidence that every liability of the bank will be paid in full, instead of waiting, is on the increase. Mr. John Green, the president, still persists in saying, emphatically, that every dollar will be paid. Those who know Mr. Green believe in the success of the bank. There are indications pointing to the realization by the 15th of August of at least $150,000 in cash on some of the assets of the bank. The receiver is being engaged with a corps of clerks preparing exhibits of the assets and liabilities, for the benefit of the creditors' meeting next Saturday.

A fire was given last night at St. Mark's hall by the ladies of Jackson, for the benefit of the Capital Light Guards, a volunteer military company. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated with lights of varied colors, the ball-room was decorated with flowers and the guns of the company, representing the company appeared in uniform. Two bands of music enlivened the occasion. Splendid refreshments were served for consideration. There was a large crowd in attendance, many from a distance. The dancing continued till a late hour. A handsome sum was realized for the company, notwithstanding the recent bank failure. The affair was well conceived, planned and executed by Mrs. C. M. Myers, under whose careful management it was conducted to a grand success.
